Maggie Dent, author, educator, parenting and resilience specialist with particular interests in young children, families, educators and inspiring environments is coming to Toowoomba this September!

Maggie is a passionate campaigner for the healthy, common sense raising of children in order to strengthen families and communities; and also a great advocate of educational excellence.

Toowoomba's aspiring exceptionally excellent educators will be challenged and inspired through 3 keynotes to:

1. Dare to be Exceptional – to become a person ready to change the world and to follow their passion using their natural abilities and talents;
2. Know that 'Excellence is do-able' – reviewing mindsets, communication and professional drivers to embrace the invisible dynamics of motivation and inspiration; and
3. Have 'Playful hearts' and be passionate advocates that 'Play builds the whole child', knowing that play creates crucial brain connections, along with emotional, social and spiritual competence. Play is serious business that fosters the well-being of children and carers/educators alike.
