

Outline of Presentation

Fiona's presentation initially covers attachment theory, trauma theory and brain development and concludes her presentation with practical strategies for educators in the classroom and school environment. This presentation provides many opportunities to hear about ways of working with young people who have experienced disrupted attachment and trauma. The message of hope, safety, and recovery within the relationships we develop with these young people is a strong focus.

Presenter:

Fiona Meredith. Clinical Nurse Consultant/Ed-LinQ Coordinator.
